eport to accompany the Revised Estimate for the continuation of the Bull Temple Road to meet the arasimharaja Colony

The Government in their Order No L 593-6/51L 42-48-22 dated 1-12-48 have sanctioned the schemefor the continuation of Bull Temple Road at an estimated cost of s 32,140/- The above estimate included an amount of s 30,585/ for the work portion

The above Estimate which was sanctioned by Government in 1948 was prepared as far back as in 1947 and the rates provided therein are those that were prevailing at that time In view of the fact that the rates for the several items of work have gone up ever since the Government was approached in the matter with a request to sanction the adoption of piece-work rates as in the case of Jayanagar Kumarapark and other Extensions The Government in their letter No L 1244/I T B 0-49-8 dated 2-5-50 were pleased to sanction the application of piece-work rates for the above scheme also

The City Improvement Trust Board during its meeting on 29-11-50 resolved that the proposed construction of Mallikarjunaswa Temple street to meet the Bull Temple Road which was included under the above scheme be abandoned

The works were started after the sanction of piece-work rat by Government and up to this day the Major portion of the work ha been completed and the road opened out for traffic

As per actual execution a revised estimate amounting to Rs 32,580/- has been prepared and herewith submitted for obtaining sanction of Goverment In preparing the evised Estimate quanti as per execution with the piece-work rates approved by the Goverr ment have been provided Provision for Land Acquisition has been in the estimate as per figures obtained from the Special Land Acquisition Officer

The estimate may kindly be sanctioned
